

NOPROTEST ABOUT THE JAPANESE

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 22.—The State Department says that no protests have been received from any source regarding Japanese commercial aggressiveness in Manchuria.

DEFEATS SULLIVAN

SAN FRANCISCO, February 22.—In the bout last night Sullivan was knocked out by Ketchell.

PORTUGUESE FEAR AN OUTBREAK

LISBON, February 22.—The government is taking every precaution to prevent an expected political outbreak.

SOLD NAVAL SECRET

TOULON, February 22.—Charles Ulmo, Ensign in the French Navy, has been sentenced to life imprisonment, having been found guilty of attempting to sell French naval secrets to a foreign power.

BISHOP DEAD.

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 22.—Bishop Stirling of the Protestant Episcopal Church died here today.

FRISCO PLANING FOR FLEET.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 22.—The first reception of the fleet on its arrival here will take place in the harbor.

MEN OF FLEET ON SHORE LEAVE.

LIMA, February 22.—Men of the fleet are being given shore leave at the rate of 2,000 daily.

MINISTER WU AT COMMERCIAL CLUB

Admiring applause greeted the rising of Minister to Washington Wu Ting Fang at the Commercial Club luncheon today, when, at 2 o'clock, he declared that he had not prepared a speech but President G. W. Smith had insisted that he speak and he had therefore no option (applause).

"Since I have prepared no speech," said he "I wish to ask you to bear with me if by chance I should be led into saying that which in any way might not appear pleasant."

"I feel honored at the manner in which you receive me. I have been here before and will never forget the hearty welcome I received, and today, though the stop of my ship here is so brief, I consider it a great honor that you have sought me to be with you in this pleasant place where I am not only delighted to see so many of the fair sex but am greatly impressed and pleased to see that you allow to be here with you so many of my countrymen. It is a good sign." (Great applause.)

Minister Wu continued to say that China had long slept and had been satisfied with her own civilization until her outer doors were battered in by force.

"I will not say what kind of force," said Wu, "but it was done by force. We were for centuries, for thousands of years, satisfied with our civilization; and it is a civilization worthy to be, shall I say copied or shall I say at least worthy to be earnestly studied and perhaps imitated?"

Minister Wu continued to say that China had long slept and had been satisfied with her own civilization until her outer doors were battered in by force.

"I will not say what kind of force," said Wu, "but it was done by force. We were for centuries, for thousands of years, satisfied with our civilization; and it is a civilization worthy to be, shall I say copied or shall I say at least worthy to be earnestly studied and perhaps imitated?"

Minister Wu continued to say that China had long slept and had been satisfied with her own civilization until her outer doors were battered in by force.

"I will not say what kind of force," said Wu, "but it was done by force. We were for centuries, for thousands of years, satisfied with our civilization; and it is a civilization worthy to be, shall I say copied or shall I say at least worthy to be earnestly studied and perhaps imitated?"

Minister Wu continued to say that China had long slept and had been satisfied with her own civilization until her outer doors were battered in by force.

"I will not say what kind of force," said Wu, "but it was done by force. We were for centuries, for thousands of years, satisfied with our civilization; and it is a civilization worthy to be, shall I say copied or shall I say at least worthy to be earnestly studied and perhaps imitated?"

Minister Wu continued to say that China had long slept and had been satisfied with her own civilization until her outer doors were battered in by force.

"I will not say what kind of force," said Wu, "but it was done by force. We were for centuries, for thousands of years, satisfied with our civilization; and it is a civilization worthy to be, shall I say copied or shall I say at least worthy to be earnestly studied and perhaps imitated?"

Minister Wu continued to say that China had long slept and had been satisfied with her own civilization until her outer doors were battered in by force.

"I will not say what kind of force," said Wu, "but it was done by force. We were for centuries, for thousands of years, satisfied with our civilization; and it is a civilization worthy to be, shall I say copied or shall I say at least worthy to be earnestly studied and perhaps imitated?"

Minister Wu continued to say that China had long slept and had been satisfied with her own civilization until her outer doors were battered in by force.

"I will not say what kind of force," said Wu, "but it was done by force. We were for centuries, for thousands of years, satisfied with our civilization; and it is a civilization worthy to be, shall I say copied or shall I say at least worthy to be earnestly studied and perhaps imitated?"

Minister Wu continued to say that China had long slept and had been satisfied with her own civilization until her outer doors were battered in by force.

"I will not say what kind of force," said Wu, "but it was done by force. We were for centuries, for thousands of years, satisfied with our civilization; and it is a civilization worthy to be, shall I say copied or shall I say at least worthy to be earnestly studied and perhaps imitated?"

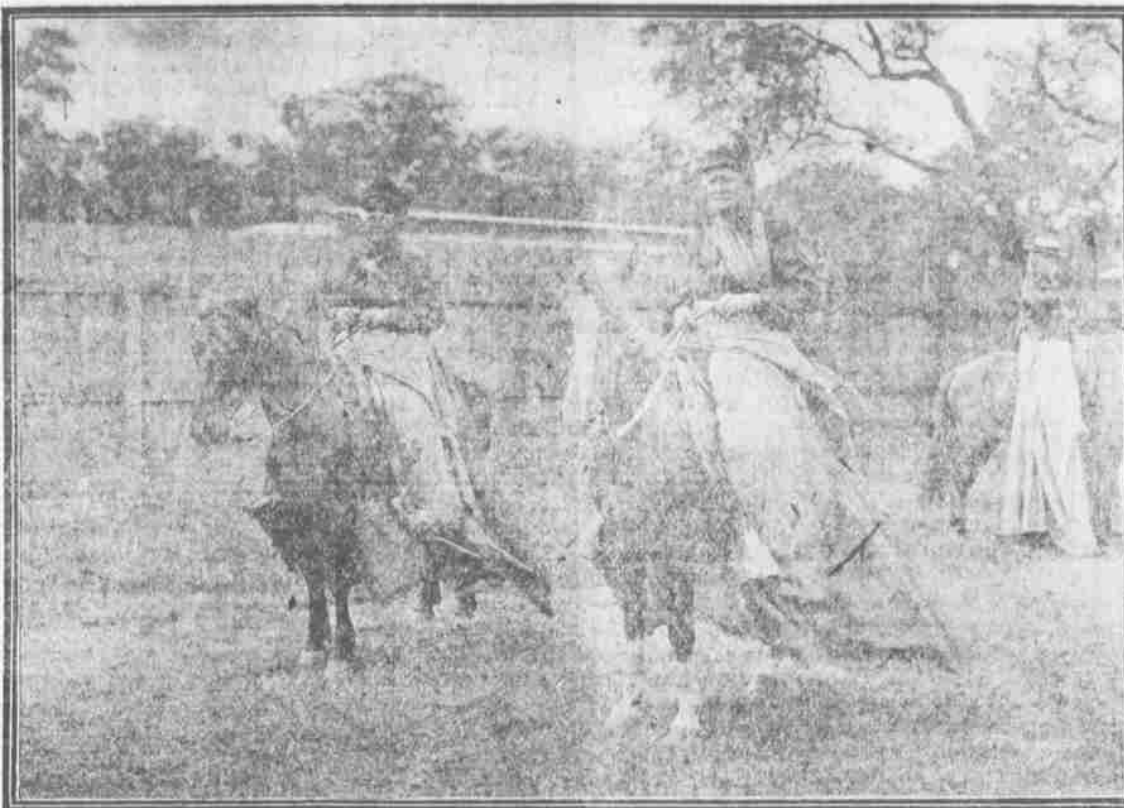

Minister Wu continued to say that China had long slept and had been satisfied with her own civilization until her outer doors were battered in by force.

"I will not say what kind of force," said Wu, "but it was done by force. We were for centuries, for thousands of years, satisfied with our civilization; and it is a civilization worthy to be, shall I say copied or shall I say at least worthy to be earnestly studied and perhaps imitated?"

Minister Wu continued to say that China had long slept and had been satisfied with her own civilization until her outer doors were battered in by force.

"I will not say what kind of force," said Wu, "but it was done by force. We were for centuries, for thousands of years, satisfied with our civilization; and it is a civilization worthy to be, shall I say copied or shall I say at least worthy to be earnestly studied and perhaps imitated?"

THE GREAT FLORAL PARADE

A COUPLE OF PAU RIDERS

THE PRIZES

Prizes to automobiles were awarded as follows, according to class, and the prize pennants distributed to the winners by Mrs. Governor Frear:

Section A—Large touring cars:
First—Alexander Young.
Second—Mrs. George C. Fairchild.
Third—Kumulu Boat Club.
Honorable mention—U. S. Marine Corps.

Section B—Small Touring cars:
First—Mrs. Louis Abrams.
Second—S. R. Jordan.
Third—Willard Brown.
Special prize to T. Clive Davies.
Section C—Runabouts:
First—C. U. von Hamm.
Second—William Schumann.
Third—Kilohana Art League (Gus Schaefer).

Section D—Comical Automobile:
George and Richard Cooke.
Comie Section, Vehicles:
Lunatic Home Float.
Comie—Riders.
Horse wearing pants.
Vehicles—multiple team:
E. H. Lewis (with band).

Four-in-hands:
First—San Juan Hill.
Second—Army transportation wagon.
Double teams:
Sam Parker.
Single teams:
First—C. W. Macfarlane.
Second—Tom Hollinger.

Surveys:
A. J. Campbell.
Tableaux floats:
Kilohana Art League.
Fire Departments:
First—Hose and Engine No. 4.
Second—Hose and Engine No. 2.
Bicycles:
First—Tandem boat, Gilliland and Rodriguez.

Second—Boy on blue and white decorated wheel.
Third—Cart goat.
Most Original:
Bicycle Fish, Freitas.
Most comical:
Harvey Carlton, (tramp character).
Pony and juvenile turnout:
First—Marjory Guimaraes.
Second—Marian Stacker.
Other Vehicles:
Horse propelled out, F. E. Thompson.

Island Princesses:
First—Oahu—(Mrs. Mignonette Myers).
Second—Maui—(Miss Alice Hartman).
Special mention, Hawaii, (Miss Emma).

(Continued on Page Four.)

POPULAR PRICES.

The Alexander Young Cafe serves the best meals in town at popular prices. Service unsurpassed.

AN ENTERPRISING MERCHANT
K. Yamamoto is the biggest importer of Japanese goods in Hawaii. Eve y steamer from the Orient (tramp or passenger) brings him the largest shipment consigned to one firm. By getting his goods in large quantities the freight and other charges are greatly reduced which enables him to undersell all competitors.

Wu Ting Fang In Honolulu To-Day

THE GREAT CHINESE DIPLOMAT A GUEST AT THE COMMERCIAL CLUB AT LUNCH—HIS ARRIVAL ON THE SIBERIA AND INTERVIEWS IN WHICH, AS USUAL, WU DOES MOST OF THE QUESTIONING.

Chinese Minister to Washington, Wu Ting Fang was today invited to address the Commercial Club at 1:30 o'clock. Preparations were made for a great crowd of prominent citizens, the tables in the sky dining hall of the McCauley building being prettily and simply decorated with carnations in vases in which also tiny crossed American and Chinese flags were in evidence.

In the center of the main table, at which Minister Wu sat, was placed a large pineapple surmounted by carnations and bearing little flags of China and the United States, the base of the fruit being surrounded with white and red carnations, violets and evergreen.

At 1 o'clock the big dining hall was jammed and there was an overflow in the hallways and parlors, the arrangement finally being the seating of but one gentleman at a table, the rest of the space being given to the ladies. Wu is immensely popular with the ladies.

Minister Wu was seated at the head of the chamber with Governor Frear and the soup was passed at 1:11 o'clock.

His Excellency Doctor Wu Ting Fang, Chinese minister to Washington, accompanied by twenty other diplomats from the Celestial Empire, their families, twenty-four students, and five servants, sixty-four in the expedition all together, this morning arrived in the Pacific Mail steamship Siberia from the Orient, all but three being bound through.

Resplendent among them all shines Wu Ting Fang, famous as a man of affairs and superior intellectuality. He has been magnified and banqueted and quoted and consulted in America more than most other extraordinary men through his independence.

Wu started his immediate local fame this morning when the doctors of the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Service had boarded the liner outside to inspect the big crowd of passengers.

Always careful, the doctors are keeping a particularly sharp lookout on vessels from the Orient nowadays, on account of plague, small-pox and cholera.

The passengers were lined up on deck for inspection and Dr. Moore observed that the number of those thus parading was one short of what the passenger list called for. Inquiry elicited the information that His Excellency, Wu Ting Fang was the missing number. Where was he?

Stewards were sent hustling through the great ship to find His Excellency and after a while he was discovered in his most honorable nudity, enjoying the pleasures of a bath.

He was informed that the doctors would like to take a look at him. Wu Ting Fang is not a quick dresser and the entire ship's company was held up waiting for the doctors to get a look at the great Chinese, while he was

(Continued on Page Five.)

EVERY BOTTLE GUARANTEED.
This is done with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and if you are not satisfied after using two-thirds of the bottle according to directions, return what is left and your money will be refunded. For sale by all dealers, Benson Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

NEW MILLINERY STYLES.
Sachs will have advanced styles in millinery on display Thursday, February 26th, in Gage Patterns and some of his own creations.

New England Bakery candies are nourishing and delightful. Try them.

FAMOUS HEYWOOD SHOE FOR MEN

There's another big shipment just in on the Alameda. The Heywood Shoe is just right for style, quality, and price, and you'll do well to treat yourself to a pair of them.

There are two styles, No. 453 is a Vici Kid with soft, flexible welt and Medium Round Toe. It is a straight-lace shoe, made from the Highland Last. Price $4.50.

Style No. 505 is exactly the same shoe, except that it has the Rubber Heel. Price $5.00.

MANUFACTURERS' SHOE
Company Limited.

Fort Street. P. O. Box 469.
PHONE 282.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure
The only baking powder made with Royal Grape Cream of Tartar
No Alum, No Lime Phosphate